

Work Use Guidance

- All work included in this site is made publicly available by the creator. The work has not been fully verified by the United Nations (UN) or TLNT (Talenthouse). The creator is solely responsible for ensuring they have permission to use all elements included in the work they submit.
- All participants have generously agreed to allow any United Nations (UN) supporter to use their work for 1 year (March 30, 2020, to March 30, 2021) in support of the UN campaign to help stop the spread of Covid-19. The original creator retains ownership of the work they submitted.
- You are free to edit the copy in the layered artwork to translate it for local market use.
- When using any of the work on this site, please always credit the original creator (name and social channel). You can find this information by clicking on the work and their name is on the right of the image.

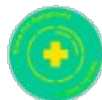

Please feel free to tag @UN and @talenthouse and use the hashtag #UNCovid19Brief

Personal Hygiene

Physical Distancing

Know the Symptoms

Myth-Busting

Spread Kindness

Solidarity